

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3123.932 Report to consumer reporting agency.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

If the office of child support, on conducting its review, determines that the person is included in the case registry, it shall provide the consumer reporting agency with a report that sets forth the name of the person who is the subject of the request, a statement that the person is required to make support payments under one or more support orders, the name of the courts or child support enforcement agencies that issued the support orders, the counties in which those courts or agencies are located, and whether any of the support orders are being administered by a child support enforcement agency.
